TORRANCE, CA (August, 2023) – Torrance Art Museum (TAM) is excited to return to Del Amo Crossing, October 27th-29th , with two enormous, artist-run, projects: TRYST and Nomad II.

TRYST* will be the world's largest art fair for alternative galleries and artist-run initiatives

TRYST presents a panorama of diverse artistic voices addressing a range of issues from different types of artist groups, with various structures, that exemplify the myriad ways that these initiatives support and grow the art world.

TRYST offers a wider view of the current developments in emerging contemporary art as well as insight into the many ways artists form and run grass-roots organizations and art spaces.

Participating Spaces:

After Time Collective (Portland, OR), Altan Klamovka (Prague, Czech Republic), Dinghy Rig (Fort Collins, CO), DUO Contradiction (Stockholm, Sweden), DXIX (Colorado), ETAJ (Bucharest, Romania), Farm & Distillery (Berlin, Germany), Free range (Chicago, IL), Galerie Pluto (Bonn, Germany), Gallery 70 (Tirana, Albania), Gallery Lara (Tokyo, Japan), HilbertRaum (Berlin, Germany), Galique (Gyumri, Armenia), Hyperlink (Denver, CO), MalerinnenNetzWerkm (Berlin, Germany), MPAC (Zurich, Switzerland), The New Museum of Networked Art (Germany), Nulobaz (Tel Aviv, Israel), OSH Projects (London, UK), OJOMX (Mexico City, MX), Our Neon Foe (Sydney, Australia), Pastor Projects (Tecate, MX), Proyectos Raul Zamudio (NYC), Struggling Art Space (Hong Kong/UK),
